Deputy Sheriff, Paid By County, To Serve Here

Ordinance Takes Effect On September 2, Salary Set at $2885

With a unanimous vote, the board of supervisors last week adopted an ordinance which provides Truckee with a full time, paid deputy sheriff to be employed on night duty. The salary, established through the ordinance, will be $2885 per annum.

The new officer is expected to be appointed by September 2 when the ordinance becomes effective. There has been no indication as to who the appointee will be.

At the present time John Collier, a deputy constable, is patroling at nights but has been receiving his compensation through collections from local merchants. Whether he will receive the appointment under the new setup was not immediately learned.

Supervisor H. G. Loehr a month ago asked the board to authorize a deputy constable so that local merchants would not be required to pay double for police protection. The idea of a deputy constable did not meet wholehearted approval and it was only after some discussion that Loehr was able to convince all concerned that Truckee needed and was entitled to a deputy sheriff.

SEEK RETURN OF PUBLIC BEACH AT TAHOE IN ACTION

AUBURN—The Placer county planning commission has requested the county board board of supervisors to reclaim portions of the Lake Tahoe beach at Tahoe Pines. Known as Lake Park, it was dedicated to public use in 1910.

The commission cited, in its paper to the supervisors, that "several property owners arbitrarily have taken possession of portions of the beach and excluded the public while using the same privately."

The strip of land in question covers 1200 feet of lake frontage.

FLORISTON SCHOOL IS REACTIVATED AT CARLSON'S REQUEST

At the request of Walter A. Carlson, county superintendent of schools, the board of supervisors reestablished the Floriston school district. The district, which lies 16 miles east of Truckee, was suspended three years ago. Carlson told the board he expects an attendance of between 10 and 12 pupils due to an influx of population.

In paving the way for the appointment of a full time paid deputy sheriff for Truckee, the board of supervisors did what should have been done many years ago. However, we cannot discount the efforts of our local representative who has made it one point of business to secure a deputy for this area. That Truckee is entitled to the services of a county paid deputy cannot be questioned. The salaries are paid through refunds from state liquor licenses and the outlets here are sufficient to more than provide the extra cost for the new officer. We are pleased that the board, through the urging of our local supervisor, saw fit to give Truckee the police protection to which it is fully entitled.

A trip through the valleys of California these days impress us more and more with the fine climate which we in this region enjoy. The sweltering heat of the lower elevation is sending thousands of motorists and vacationists into our region where the cooling breezes and beautiful scenery are enough to make them want to stay forever. We can think of no climate which offers the healthful, invigorating atmosphere of the high Sierra.

There were 22 serious motor vehicle accidents in the Truckee region during July, a new record for the area, but not as many as might be expected from the way many of the careless drivers behave. State patrolmen can do only so much to prevent accidents. The task lies with the driver and the sooner some of the nitwits realize that they are fooling with certain death with their carelessness, the sooner the accident toll will diminish instead of continuing to increase.

Follett Back from Bank Meeting in San Francisco

Marion Follett, pro-assistant cashier of the Bank of America branch here, returned to his duties Monday after a five day series of conferences at the head office of his institution in San Francisco.

Purpose of the conferences, attended by representatives of 40 Bank of America branches, was the discussion of instalment purchase financing.

Follett revealed that the bank, in calling conferences on this type of financing, is marshalling its facilities in expectation of a vast market for consumer type goods upon resumption of large scale production by the nation's industries.

Fugitives' Trail Is Traced From Jail to Truckee

Men Are Reported Heavily Armed, Use Stolen Car, Plates

Two prisoners who escaped from the Sonoma county jail recently were believed to have paid Truckee a brief visit this week after it was revealed that a car registered to Mrs. Ella Noonan of Santa Rosa, stolen by the prisoners at the time of the break was in the Truckee Garage.

A Truckee tow car was called to bring in the car which was on Donner Summit. The driver, who answered the description of Thomas Edward White, one of the fugitives, paid the tow bill, rented a room here and then suddenly decided to leave town.

Officers Tom Sheehan and K. C. Kolb were called to investigate and teletypes revealed that White and Roy W. Marr had broken jail and were heavily armed and dangerous. Two pistol holsters were found in the car but no weapons.

The car bore a stolen license plate which made immediate identification impossible.

FATHER, CHILDREN BROUGHT TO SAFETY BY TRIO FROM TAHOE

TAHOE CITY— Three Tahoe men played the roles of rescuers on Thursday last when they brought a vacationist and his two children, aged six and ten, lost up Blackwood Creek, to safety. The rescuers were Bob Devore, Charles Hutchinson and Constable Harry Johanson.

Those lost were Byron W. Williams and his son and daughter. With Mrs. Williams and a smaller daughter, they were guests at Schlueter's. The trio left for a fishing jaunt up the creek bout 5 PM and planned to return around eight.. When they failed to appear for supper, Mrs. Williams contacted the Schlueters.

The constable was called and the rescue party set forth. Working from the family car, and after much shouting, the parties got together around 1 AM. The lost trio was cold and hungry but otherwise unhurt. Williams will think twice after this before starting out on a fishing trip in unknown territory in the evening.

Work Is Begun On Improving Our Main Street

Crews Go Ahead on Other Phases of Road Work In Region

Crews under the direction of Milo A. Browne of Hayward this week started rebuilding Truckee's main street, a project which has been sought for more than ten years by local businessmen and other residents.

The first step is the installation of a concrete curb down the full length of the street. Resurfacing and widening the thoroughfare will be the next step.

At the same time, other crews are engaged between Gateway and Truckee, realigning and grading Highway 40, while still others are working between the bridge over the Truckee river between here and Tahoe to the Placer-Nevada county line.

Browne said he expects the work to take at least 90 days before it is completed. Traffic is not being delayed materially despite the nature of the work.

FIRE NEAR TAHOE UNDER CONTROL BY FOREST MEN

TAHOE CITY— On Tuesday night the fire, which was reported on Monday morning to Ranger Fred White at Tahoe Public Camp, was brought under control. A man was left to guard it as there was still smoke rising. Cause of the fire, one half mile in back of Blackwood Canyon on Blackwood Ridge, remains unknown.

A truck belonging to Tahoe Tavern and being driven by Charles Walsh was destroyed by fire while on its way to the dumping grounds at Brockway. It is believed hot ashes were part of the cargo of trash. The truck and contents were burned but not before Homer Hixon, foreman of the highway crew, found an open spot on the Dollar Hill, where the blaze occurred, and advised the driver to leave it there, thereby preventing trees from catching on fire.

White advises Tahoe residents that anyone caught dumping garbage on private property and in the back road country will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. Considerable illegal dumping is being carried on in the more isolated forest areas since the closing of the Tahoe City dumps. If this is not discontinued, White declares back roads will be closed to public use.

Honeymoon Is Resumed As Difficulty is Settled

The honeymoon is on again and the California Highway Patrol can get back to normal routine.

Patrolmen were up most of the night following a report by Mrs. Ann Bailey of Los Angeles, bride for a day, that she was beaten up by some one in the bridal party returning from Reno and was deserted by her husband and friends. She was taken to an Auburn hospital.

The husband and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Willerton of San Francisco were found afoot at Rainbow Tavern. The men were placed in the county jail here on a charge of being drunk on the highway and Mrs. Willerton went to a hotel. They said Mrs. Bailey deserted them after apparently falling from the car.

Mrs. Bailey told officers then that she had alighted from the machine and had fallen, became angry and thought she had been struck by a blow, so she took the car and left. The men paid fines, the quartet was reunited and resumed the honeymoon.

Tahoe Justice Seeks Jail In Letter to Supervisors

Mrs. Evelyn Bliss, justice of the peace at Tahoe City, has urged in a letter to the Placer county supervisors that prompt action be taken in rebuilding the jail at Tahoe on the ground it is badly needed.

Judge Bliss stated that Constable Johanson is forced to escort some undesirable characters to the road leading from town as the only means of getting rid of them.

She also urged more stringent inspections to enforce zoning ordinances which she declares are being evaded or disregarded.

She added, "We should take no pride in one of the lowest tax rates in the state if we do not have funds to enforce the various ordinances the board has adopted."

The county planning commission meanwhile will request an addition of $500 to its budget from the supervisors on August 20. The extra fund is needed to conduct investigations into asserted zoning regulation violations in the North Tahoe area.

MARRIED

John Rau, 28, Truckee, was reported married to Alice Eissinger, 23, of Wishek, N. D., at Reno this week. Jack Carroll, 28, Tahoe City, and Jette White, 36, Richmond, were also issued a marriage license at Reno the same date.

State's Newspapers to Observe Centennial On August 15th

It was on August 15, 1846, that the first issue of the Monterey Californian, destined to be California's first newspaper, was run off on an ancient Spanish press. Today that single newspaper has grown to approximately 577 daily and weekly newspapers throughout the state.

As we read the histories of some of the oldest California newspapers in existence today—those which unlike the Monterey Californian, did not fade from the earth after a short period of publication, we read of their struggles to survive earthquakes, fires and political corruption and still today be among the few nearing the century mark in years of continual publication.

Story of Founding

The story of the founding of the Monterey Californian is interesting.

The American flag had been raised in Monterey by Commodore Sloat on July 7, 1846, and after the proclamation had been read, it became Commodore Sloat's responsibility to appoint a mayor. He looked over the Americans who were present and selected Walter Colton, chaplain of the USS Congress which had brought the Americans to Monterey a short time before.

Colton decided the best way to make public the various proclamations, laws and orders as well as the news of the day was via a newspaper.

He made a partner of Dr. Robert Semple, who in addition to being a doctor, lawyer and dentist, was an accomplished typesetter, editor and pressman. They uncovered a broken down press brought to California 12 years before by Thomas Shaw, a Boston merchant, and odds and ends of type faces.

The first issue of four pages, 11¾ by 10¼ inches had two column pages and was printed on cigarette paper. Its home was the second floor of the Customs House.

Contents of Paper

In addition to the "prospectus" in the first column, the rest of the front page was devoted to Commodore Sloat's proclamation read a month before, and the second page contained Spanish translations of the more important items carried in the newspaper. The rest of the first edition contained "late news" in the form of clipping from a New York Herald three months old, and several local items. There was one advertisement by an enterprising American lad who offered his service as an interpretor.

Subscription rates announced in the first issue were $5 a year and 12½ cents a copy.

The Californian continued under joint ownership of Colton and Semple until April 17, 1847, which is the last issue that bears their names together as publishers. After that Dr. Semple remained alone as publisher. In May 1847, he moved the Californian to San Fransisco. It continued as a weekly until December, 1848, when it was absorbed by the California Star. Colton returned east and apparently dismissed all thoughts of California and the newspaper business which he helped start.

Crater Lake National Park in Oregon was established by Congress in 1902.

SUMMIT SCENE

by FRANCES COUILLARD

We have cleaned our glasses and are peeping in keyholes again.

Soda is leven. The soda in Soda Springs has started to "work". The "mountain" is a bread pan of yeast germs. From Herstle Jones' rock palace at Emigrant Gap to Herstle Jones' Donner Ski Ranch at the Summit, the district has become a chain on which many pearls are being threaded. And by way of a bit of news, the H. Joneses have a new son born on August first.

Alice and Jack Walsh at Cisco Pines (and formerly of Jack's Plunge at Bowman) have made many improvements in their place and are continuing to do so. The gift shop at Cisco is again in operation after the shortage of gift materials during the war days.

Coming up the hill to Big Bend we find Charlie Buttlar and his wife, Jeannie, planning great changes and improvements in the Big Bend Inn (Jennie Moore's old place) and this they can well afford to dream about for the Big Bend Inn is a popular spot these days.

Rainbow, under the management of Joe and Juanita Navone, is just as popular as ever and a place to park can hardly be found.

Crampton's recently remodeled their store and are doing a great business with the public camp grounds across the street running at full capacity.

Then we come to Kingvale and all the summer residents have pulled off their winter shutters, the swimming pool is filled with summer tanned kids and the little lunch room at Kingvale is packed until the wee small hours with cabin owners. Mrs. Lois Hack and her grandchildren, Irma and Cliff David; the Brennan family at Red Fir Lodge, the Nagles, the Woodins—all are summer residents.

A little further up Eddie Aro, one of our winter ski instructors, can be seen adding a new wing onto his most attractive cabin.

Donner Summit Lodge looks quite barren with the pines surrounding it being packed off by Paul Norboe's bulldozer for the purpose of clearing for their new addition which, incidentally, will be a beauty. We have seen the plans. A Hammond organ will be part of their new equipment! Betty Horak, wife of Bud the manager, had a grand birthday party on Saturday night—and a few weeks ago a barbecue for over 70 people was held on the river bank back of the lodge where a beautiful barbecue site is being prepared.

The Soda Springs post office has partaken of the leven too—and has gone third class. And in the same building George Fraley (better known in these here parts as the Mayor of Soda Springs) has put in a grocery store which the district well needs.

We hear that Elmo Moriano is taking unto himself a wife to help him with the management of Beacon Hill. Elmo is in the City now—acourting and having himself a birthday party with his family.

Birthdays seem to be in the majority around the last of July and the first of August. Muriel Jones at the Soda Springs Hotel had a grand party last Tuesday night. The Soda Springs Hotel has enjoyed a tremendous business during the seasno and can be compared to an old mother hen for the hotelites, who have been guests at the hotel for many season and are building round and about the building that has housed them for so many years. Ultimately we can see, in that region, a community within a community.

John Carl's house, up the road a bit, a sad sight since it was broken down by the heavy snows and winds las winter, is taking on a cheerful aspect with the new walls climbing towards the top of the pines.

Awaya back in the timber, Ice Lakes have poured themselves a foundation for a huge hotel. It is fun to hide away in the cocktail lounge at Ice Lakes of an evening with Ralph and Larry Rowtan and listen to their wise cracks.

The Sugar Bowl, open for the summer for the first time since the war, are serving grand meals and is open to the public. The Zellerbachs the Arthur Merrill Browns and the Hannes Schrolls are holding down the fort.

The Cedars have again opened their grill away back in the woods and the cabins that have been closed for the past hectic years are again open.

Norden Store is remodeling with Lena and Herb Frederick holding their impatience under control until is opens in the fall. They will reestablish the Norden post office too.

Then further up the Hill we have some intrepid youngsters by the name of Vind and Gocochia who are building the nucleus of a lodge for the future. These boys don't talk much—just work.

The dirt is being piled high by Bud Walton who is managing the construction of the Donner Ski Ranch for Herstle Jones. Ski enthusiasts take a look at the beautiful sites for the ski tows on the ranch and can hardly wait for the first snow falls.

Across the street from the ranch is Ernie Nordstrum and Gene Woods. It is quite a puzzler for the mountain residents to try and figure out whether they are in the resort business, the garage business, the excavating business or the hauling business. Anyway you can't take away the enthusiasm from these boys and their varied interests, still do not detract from their Ski Hi Lodge which is almost as popular now as it was during the winter. We think they're going to do all right.

With all this there are those of us who sit around and bit our nails awaiting the time when the material shortage can be overcome to the extent that we can build on the various lots, sections and rock piles that we have accumulated.

So the leven is working and watch Soda Spring rise!

TAHOEITES ATTEND MEETING OF BOARD ON CIVIC PROBLEMS

TAHOE CITY— A delegation of Tahoeites appeared before the Placer county planning commission at Auburn on August 6th to ask that violations of health and building codes here receive immediate attention. A health inspector is urgently needed to inspect many cesspools which are overflowing and creating a critical health hazard in the lake communities.

Kings Beach residents are said to be planning the creation of a sanitary district for that area to see that cesspools are pumped out and properly drained. Also being protested is the dumping of garbage by unknown persons on private property.

Building restrictions are being violated in some areas by the erection of tnts and other forbidden structures n yards, which are unsightly and in violation of the existing laws.

Kings Beach is proving itself an up and coming community by pioneering the installation of street lights in that district. It is reported that a sum of $700 was collected in one day with which to purchase a modern lighting system, the order already in and to be installed upon arrival. The desire for street lights there met with unanimous approval.

MORHAIN-DEMPSEY NUPTIALS SURPRISE TO MANY FRIENDS

TAHOE CITY— Stealing a march on her many Tahoe friends on Tuesday night last week, Mrs. Dorothy Morhain of the Tahoe telephone office slipped away to Reno and changed her name to Mrs. Cecil Dempsey. The ceremony was performed in the court house by Judge A. J. Maestretti and the witnesses were Mrs. Dempsey's brother in law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Michael Korich of Tahoe City. Following the rites the quartet celebrated the event with a dinner party at the Town House.

More than elated over the event are Mrs. Dempsey's children by a former marriage, Colleen, Collette and Jimmie Morhain, and Dempsey's two sons, Lincoln and Patrick, the latter now vacationing with his mother at San Miquel.

Only cloud on the horizon this week is the accident which befell Dempsey, butcher at Atherton's. He received a painful cut on the thumb of his left hand a few days ago which required a number of stitches to close, and on Monday reopened the wound in another accident. The butcher shop is temporarily closed due to this misfortune but will reopen soon.

Tahoe Letter
From SWANEE

Tahoe City, California.
August 4, 1946

Dear Tahoeites:

It's Sunday again and time to round up some of the news of the past week. The weather continues beautiful, today boasting a bit of a breeze which kept it from getting too hot. Traffic continues terrific and I, for one, marvey that we don't have more accidents. And this year a new hazard has been added in the many motor scooters which can be rented locally, that whiz and zip around between cars, taking some tall chances on occasion.

Had an unexpected letter this week from our old friend, Dennis "Slim" Gordon, former wood contractor who made his home at the Tahoe Public Camp grounds for several years. Slim returned with the robins thsi spring but the wanderlust got him within a short time and he was off again. His letter was writtend from Plymouth, Indiana, and indicates that his aging mother is very sick and in need of pure olive oil. He's hoping I can find some here to send him. I'll be glad to oblige if I can. Slim is working on one of his dreams of long standing—one to help his fellow man. He's going to try to get 200 houses built on 640 acres of land, which will also house a factory. All will own their own homes and have equal shares in the factory. There's oil on the property and sale of this will help finance the project. His many Tahoe friends will be wishing him success....but Tahoe still needs good woodsmen when—and if—his dreams fall thru.

Am rejoicing this week with members of the Prusso clan who are joyfully anticipating the return of their soldiering relative, Roy Teagarden, who has been stationed in faroff Korea these many months. Roy is the husband of the former Theda Prussó and has a little daughter Sigana and young son Don waiting to get acquainted with him. We'll bet a cookie that Roy is having heebie jeebies waiting for that old boat to pull out, for from accounts in his letters he has no love for Korea. And Theda? Well, she was so thrilled and excited last week when she received the telegram that she could scarcely talk.

The Henry Solls had another of htose newsy letters from daughter, Alice, in Iceland last week. This time she told of her fishing trip, made into the back country with friends. Her husband, who is kept busy translating laguages for school text books, joined her over weekends. The party

SCANDANAVIAN FUGITIVE

TAHOE CITY— Investigation into the case of Elmer Minckler, who was sentenced to a year in county jail for stealing the car of E. W. Arnold from Tahoe Tavern July 1, reveals he is not Minckler of New York but Bjorn Togerson of Norway who jumped ship in New York last August and has been sought ever since. He will serve his jail term and from there federal officers take over his future.

Tahoe Lake School Column

Back again at her little cottage on the hill near the Tahoe Lake School is Mrs. Myrtle Gallinger who has just completed teaching a summer school in northern California. Phil Gallinger, her husband, is also home once more. She will enjoy a week's rest before resuming classes here.

Elementary school will start for the fall term on Monday morning, August 12th, with Mrs. Gallinger teaching the upper grades and Mrs. Archie Scott the primary classes.

There will be a change in the transportation routine for the pupils this year. Plans call for the operation of two buses, one driven by Mrs. Stella Watson, the regular driver for a number of years, and one by Al Henry Jr., who has served as relief driver. Al will drive out toward north Tahoe and Mrs. Watson will drive out Tahoma way. Both buses will discharge pupils for 9 AM classes daily, thereby eliminating the 8 AM classes which were necessary under the old method. Formerly one group had to arise earlier in order to attend the earlier classes, made necessary when transportation was a real problem for the many pupils who rode the one bus. The old bus ...ul at the Henry Garage, and if finished in time and passed by the state inspector, the new routine will start at once. If it is not yet ready, the new plan will be utilized at the earliest possible moment.

Excellent movies of an educational nature were enjoyed by the school children on Friday last in the school auditorium. They were furnished by Standard Oil Company of California.

4-H Camp at Lake Tahoe Closes After State Meet

CRYSTAL BAY— Nearly 300 rural youngsters are back in their homes this week from the 1946 Nevada state 4-H Club camp at Lake Tahoe. The outing in the High Sierra ended last Saturday, August 3.

Before they left, the youngsters chose new club officers for the coming year with Wayne Munk of Pershing county being named president; Cyril Shank, Churchill county, vice president, and Patricia Melendy of Washoe county, secretary.

Wholesome recreation was the chief aim of this year's camp, to give the boys and girls a relief from the work of the farm during the war years.

Swimming, games of all sorts, hikes, singing, dramatic skits and other "let down" activities featured the camp. For those who wished, there were classes in folk dancing, music, leadership, crafts work, nature study, social etiquette for teen agers and similar activities. This year, for the first time, the boys and girls ran the camp themselves insofar as possible, as training in self government and leadership.

MY PLACE in the SUN

by DOUG BARRETT

Truckee citizens are looking with long anticipated pleasure upon the paving project going on on our main street this week. The excavation for the gutter is going down with many local lads among the imported labor plying picks, shovels and other miscellaneous tools. Viewing this project with a civic eye, Rufus Gregory came up with a suggestion well worthy of further attention. Because of our extensive tourist traffic and occasional breezes that blow down our canyon, the main street and sidewalk is often —nay, always—in shabby shape with bits of paper and other debris drifting along. Greg thinks that when the curb and gutter are down, a good plan would be to have the fire department each Monday morning early give the sidewalk and gutter a hosing. If the work was done at the time suggested, it would not seriously interfere with any commercial enterprise. Necessarily, there would be some cost attached but Rufus says he would be gald, as one of our many businessmen, to foot his fair share of the cost on a subscription basis. I thought the idea well worthy of mention and pass it along for your appraisal.

motored as far as possible, then made the rest of the trip on foot. Some of the homes in the remote sections are estimated to be more than 100 years old, with cooking done over the large, open fire places, and the sod roofs covered with growing grass.

Alice found a most unique custom when she planned her Atlantic salmon fishing trip, and that is that in Iceland one rents the river from the farmer through whose property it flows. There is no limit to the catch and one can sell any or all of the fish if they wish. The salmon were so large and plentiful that she and her party scorned three and four pound trout. The river was larger than the Truckee and much more swift. She enjoyed it all immensely and hopes to go again soon.

We were happy last week to add to our ever growing Sierra Sun subscription list the names of Dr. and Mrs. Lee Hand of San Frnacisco who recently purchased the Timberland Tract home of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Leach. The Hands fell in love with Tahoe on their first visit here several years ago and returned during the winter last season to look for a home. Their home is constantly filled with company and members of the family. And Dr. Hand has four brothers all doctors. Last week vacationers included Mrs. Delbert Hand, son Don and daughter Marion, the Lee Hand's daughter, Marilyn and her houseguest, Miss Marlene Geiger, Mrs. Mark Hand and daughters Barbara and Virginia Lee, all of San Francisco. Lee Hand, Jr., sophomore at Stanford, arrives this week to spend the month of August. Last week Lee brought his mother up a cute little green jeep in which to run about at Tahoe and he also brought along some friends. They include Jerry Hayward, Frank Soto and Miss Jackie Murphy, the quartet spending four days here.

So fast is the little community of Tahoe Pines growing that additional space had to be provided for more mail boxes. This week Gar Hale is putting the finishing touches to his remodeling job, which had added approximately 16 feet of floor space to Postmaster Alice Brown's office, eight feet at either end. Sixty boxes have been installed and all are rented, with more still needed to accomodate the growing summer colony. Mrs. Brown will use one end of the building for her curio shop, which is proving more popular with each passing summer. Incidentally, Mrs. Brown observed a birthday on Saturday, which was celebrated on Sunday when Ernest Pomin invited Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Libby Cline and Mrs. Elizabeth Bavier of Truckee to a dinner party at Homewood Hotel. The honoree received many lovely cards and gifts from friends who remembered the occasion.

Jimmie Frazier, son of the Ray Fraziers of Lake Forest, on Monday celebrated his 23rd birthday. Coincidentally, his Uncle Sam sent him a letter which arrived on his natal day informing him that he has been granted 30 per cent disability, starting on the day after his discharge. Jim has almost a whole year's pay coming and he can well use it on his new home which is being rushed to completion on the lot next to that of his parents in Lake Forest. An addition was started this week and the young Fraziers and little daughter Linda, hope to be moed in within a couple of weeks. The Ray Fraziers enjoyed a brief vacation trip over the weekend, leaving Saturday morning early, driving by way of Kit Carson Pass to Jackson, the summit rising to 8600 feet elevation. Vera got out to take some pictures and noted the extra altitude a once. They continued on to San Andreas, Twin Lakes, Red Lake, Silver Lake, then to Plymouth, staying overnight in Sacramento. They enjoyed the jaunt so much they plan to spend every other weekend in this manner during the rest of the summer.

It is with deepest regrets that this week I announce the loss of our very good neighbors and friends, Mrs. John Reedy and her sister, Miss Ann McDonald who on Sunday next will depart for their San Francisco apartment. They have sold their lovely Timberland Tract home across the street from us to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kurtz of Lodi, who will arrive to vacation on Sunday afternoon. The Reedy home was one of the first to be built in popular Timberland, having been erected by Mr. Mayfield in 1936. Mrs. Reedy and Miss McDonald do not, however, plan to desert Tahoe but will later purchase lots in the new Tahoe Tavern Tract, next to the Catholic Church, and will erect a smaller home to suit their needs and possibly a guest cabin. They have been excellent neighbors and friends, and we know all their Timberland Tract intimates will regret their departure as much as we.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stark of the Dollar estate learned last week that son, Bob, who has been stationed aboard the battleship Missouri at New York is now awaiting at New Foundland for reassignment to another ship. He wrote that he was certainly seeing the world and enjoying it. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stark and three children aree eagerly anticipating moving into their lovely new three bedroom home which is nearing completion in the new Jacob's Tract, adjoining the Bittencourt Tract in town.

At the Pingree home in town recent guests were Chief Machinists Mate Ed Slayton, his sister Miss Jean Bennett, both of San Diego and their mother, Mrs. Bennett, of Norfolk, Va. While here they enjoyed a bit of successful fishing and took in all the sights around the lake. Mrs. Pingree's son, CWO Phil Asai, will arrive at Tahoe on Saturday for a vacation on his brand new motorcycle, which has just passed its breaking in period of 1,000 miles. He's a member of the crew of the USS Badoeng Straits at San Diego. His mom says he is still a loyal Sierra Sun reader, having enjoyed reading it all through the war years while he was in navy service.

Another Tahoe boy who is eagerly looking forward to a vacation at the lake with members of his family is Roy Olander, who is the youngest son of Mrs. Helga Olander of Forest Inn. Roy is attending college at Colorado Springs and is training for the navy air corps. He is making quite a name for himself at his school and has taken pole vaulting honors. He arrives home the end of August to remain for a whole month. Carl Olander today is observing a birthday, having reached the ripe old age of 32. His mother made him a present of a three month old filly who is pastured in the cool shade near Ward Creek at present.

The Sierra Pacific Power Company before long will install a heavy duty power line from Tahoe City wye to the site of the Lake Tahoe Ski Club hill in town, the voltage ample to provide power for the proposed new ski lift and the homes now being erected in the new Fairway Tract above the Tavern golf links.

Have not been able to contact Sam Goss on any further news regarding the building tieup at Tahoe but other sources inform me that the situation stands the same as last week—with no news on the matter. All concerned have but one wish at this moment—a clear cut policy plainly delineated by the government so that business men might know what to expect in the future, and what to do at present.

Leave you for another week and pray this balmy summer weather continues to abide with us for some time to come. Good luck, good health and happy days to all of you, as ever, Swanee.

PETE LAZZARI

Truckee, Calif

By CARL HELM

NEW YORK — The Big Town's aswarm this summer with vacationing visitors from out in America (while local yokels flee to woodland and shore)—so this is to report on how you can best see the sights—for a dime.

Sure, there are the open-deck buses up 5th Ave and Riverside Drive—but don't miss the 3rd Ave. "El," the only one left on Manhattan and a curiosity in itself.

Take it at 42nd St., near Grand Central, going "Downtown." The mellow old third-rail train meanders along the elevated tracks, two and three stories high, with frequent stops at the antique castellated stations with their stained-glass windows.

Finest view of the midtown towers —Chrysler, Empire State, Metropolitan Life and its clock at Madison Sq., finally the Woolworth Bldg. En route observe East Side life on two levels—"Lost Weekend" bars and shops of the street, the front parlors of the respectable poor above; washing and bedding on the fire escapes; Poppa in slippers behind the billowing white curtains; daughter's white pumps drying on the window ledge; "window-leaning" Mommas in neighborly gossip.

Below 14th St., get ready for the Bowery . . . the flophouses just outside the "El" windows, the "Street of Lost Men" below . . . Disembark at Chatham Sq. if you want to prowl Chinatown — or stay aboard while the train twists down under Brooklyn Bridge and into the canyons, with a view of Wall St. "from the church to the river"; the ocean liners docked against South St. and at South Ferry, the Battery and a swell view of the Statue . . . all for 5c!

The state of Florida was so named by Ponce de Leon in 1513.

Placer Roads and Bridges Increases by 58 Per Cent

The highways and bridges budget for 1945-46 in Placer county amounted to $254,394 or 58 per cent more than the $155,206 spent for this purpose in 1941-42, according to California Taxpayers' Association.

For 1944-45, the county budgeted $209,774 for highways and bridges but was able to spent only $121,886, due to war time restriction.

Over the state as a whole, county highway and bridges budgets totaled $43,909,811 for 1945-46 almost double the $22,778,108 figure for 1941-42. For 1944-45 $33,267,280 was budgeted by the counties but only $23,817,600 was spent.

A large part of the funds which are spent on county roads and bridges comes from the gas tax and motor vehicle license taxes, the association said, pointing out the most counties budget all the amount they expect to receive from these source.

The 1945 Federal tax collections from all sources totaled a record of $43,352,715,621.35.

Kings Beach Re-Zoning Issue Tabled to Aug. 30

AUBURN— A re-zoning request effecting the Kings Beach, Lake Tahoe area, has been tabled by the Placer county planning commission until August 30 at the advice of Thomas Sargent, assistant district attorney.

The main point of dispute is the right of Gallerani-Baker Company to engage in commercial activities in the area in question.

The town of Lakeport, Lake county seat, was incorporated May 7, 1888.

IT'S TIME TO RELAMP

Fill Empty Sockets — Put in Right Size Bulbs for Easy Seeing

Tonight, look around at the lighting in your home. If a lamp or lighting fixture seems dim, look at the light globe. If it is darkened with age and use, it is not giving you the light you are paying for and will soon burn out. Then count the empty sockets and the small-size bulbs that were put in temporarily some time ago.

Make a list of the lamp bulbs needed to restore bright, new lighting throughout your home. Take this list with you when you go shopping. You will find the lamp bulb supply is now plentiful. Good lighting is inexpensive. Use plenty of it.

Living Room. Protect your family's eyesight. 150-watt bulb is right size for many reading lamps.

Kitchen. For that overhead light in the kitchen you need at least 150-watts. Be sure you get right size lamp bulbs.

Child's Study Lamp. Young eyes are too precious to risk. Better get a 150-watt bulb for your child's study lamp.
